REGULAR MEETING OF THE TUESDAY AFTERNOON CLUB.

JANUARY 26, 1909.

A sympathetic and appreciative audience gathered at the club rooms on Tuesday to enjoy the musical given by the committee for the day.

The program was all and more than had been promised and the request that on account of the length of the program no entrees be given, was in some cases nearly forgotten.

The only paper on the subject, "Folk Songs," was given by Miss Emma Williams in her own inimitable style. Beginning with the earliest known records of music, Miss Williams discussed briefly but to the point the origin and characteristics of the folk songs of the different nations, concluding with a wider view of those of our own country.

Miss Williams also gave a piano solo; Mrs. Bryant contributed a darkey lullaby; Mrs. Banker a German folk song; Mrs. Burckett's Irish love song was followed by a Scotch ballad by Mrs. Fraley.

Miss Clemmens, accompanied by Miss Williams, contributed a violin solo and the program was concluded by the singing of "Auld Land Syne" by the club.

A number of guests were present, among whom were Mrs. William Johnson, Mr. Reynolds, Mrs. Boyd, Mrs. Houle, Mrs. Chase and Miss Bernice Williams.

Committee for afternoon, Mrs. Fraley, Mrs. Moyses, Miss Emma Williams.

HARD TIMES?

P. E. O.'s entertain B. I. L.'s.
The home of Mrs. Jessie Russell was on Monday night the scene of happy revelry when the sisters in Chapter L. P. E. O., entertained royally and without stint, the B. I. L.'s, who after dubiously accepting the hospitality extended, entered into the heart of the fun.

"Hard times" was the theme for amusement, and the grand march at nine o'clock, everybody in costume, was something like the combined effect of waltz rare-bit and mince pie, but the dream was true! Violin and instrumental music was furnished by Mr. R. D. Goss and Josephine Bryant. Mrs. Emma Burket and Mr. C. E. Russell pulled down the prizes. Relays of pumpkin pie, gingerbread and good coffee topped off the enthusiasm of the evening, when the chorus singing of "Good night ladies," sang under the marguerites in the reception hall, closed the happy incident.

Wonderful, enchanting, bewitching, charming, exquisite—what's the use. Adjectives fail to describe the Living Pictures. Come and see them.

There were more strangers at the Tuesday Afternoon Club this week than ever before. As usual, new names were handed in for membership.

Mrs. R. D. Goss, Fifth street, on Monday entertained Chapter L. P. E. O. White and yellow marguerites and spring blossoms were in evidence.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mitchell and family are spending the winter in their North Glendale foothill home. They return to Dakota late in the spring.

Mrs. Thomas Ogg and Mrs. Peterson held rehearsals at the home of the latter on Adams street, Wednesday afternoon, the result to be some beautiful living pictures.

David Macdonald, the expressman, went to Los Angeles on Monday and took out his first naturalization papers. We shall take great pleasure in welcoming him into the great family of American citizens.

H. D. Brown, of 1219 Chestnut street, who has been carpentering and building at Petaluma for some months, returned home yesterday. He says the weather has been very stormy in that locality for a long time.

Remember the date, Wednesday, Feb. 3d, at Masonic hall, Living Pictures.

There are eight car loads of railroad ties unloaded at the Salt Lake yard on Glendale avenue, for the electric road to Eagle Rock. Grading is well under way, being almost completed from Eagle Rock to Verdugo Road.

The regular monthly musical service will be held at St. Marks Episcopal church on Sunday evening next, January 31st, at 7:30 p. m. Much care and practice are bestowed on these services and it is hoped the congregation will show their appreciation by a full attendance.

The entertainment given by the Three Links Club last Saturday evening at Odd Fellows hall, was a success, financial and otherwise. The half dozen lady performers proved themselves to be musical artists and the program was appreciated by the fair-sized audience present.

Any wishing rural delivery numbers, as in the West Glendale, North Glendale, or Tropic districts, should call at the postoffice where the official map gives the correct numbers. City numbers (those strictly confined within city limits), are obtained from the city engineer at the city hall.

Best music of the season, vocal and instrumental, Wednesday, Masonic hall.

That enterprising citizen, Mr. C. M. Lund, has erected a free drinking fountain for man and beast on the sidewalk in front of his place of business on Third street. The work is all in cement except the plumbing and should be appreciated not only by the thirsty but by the rest of our people as well.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Stiles, of Wells, Minn., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Wilcox Parcher. Mr. Stiles has been postmaster at Wells under three administrations and is a man of prominence in that town. He has interests in a large plantation in Old Mexico and will spend several weeks in this southern country.

The Japanese Tea Girls rehearsed Wednesday afternoon at "Whispering Pines," when Mrs. Leavitt instructed the committee into the mysteries of Japanese fine dressing, demonstrating with a real Japanese in native costume. Mrs. A. D. McCoy, Mrs. Eva Banker, Mrs. Knight, Miss Byram were some of the ladies interested.

Fairies, pretty maidens and brave lads in the living art exhibit, Masonic hall, Wednesday, Feb. 3d.

Doubtless a very serious accident was averted by the unusual presence of mind of Mrs. H. D. Brown on Tuesday evening of this week. Flames and only started from a kerosene lamp in the dining room of her home. Throwing a woolen rug over her shoulders Mrs. Brown opened a window near by and snatching up the flaming stove tossed it out upon the lawn, then leaping out after it she threw it further from the house to prevent further danger. Her right hand was slightly burned.

THE WEATHER.

Rain began to fall again Sunday night, the measurement being one inch. Starting in again on Tuesday and continuing at intervals until Wednesday noon there was a fall of 1.36, as reported by Mr. H. E. Bartlett of Brand Boulevard. The total up to date is in the neighborhood of twelve inches, much ahead of the average. There has been a heavy snow fall on the mountains; Fraser mountain to the westward looms up in the distance with a snowy crest that cuts into the sky line, while Mount Wilson and the whole near-by range present a wintry appearance. Quite a fall of hail occurred Wednesday, lasting five or ten minutes. At present (Thursday) there is promise of a return to our usual condition of sunny days and seasonably cool nights.

SNOW ON THE MOUNTAINS.

There is a foot of snow at Alpine Tavern and along the ridge of the mountain from Mt. Lowe to Mount Wilson, a fresh supply falls nearly every night. Many people have been traveling out on the electric cars the past week or more to enjoy the spectacle, unique in Southern California, of a section of winter tumbled into the lap of spring. Coasting, snow balling and all the accessories of a genuine winter are to be found just now on the mountains overlooking our green hills and valleys.

REAL ESTATE AND BUILDING.

Rejino Verdugo has sold through Overton Realty Co. a house and lot on Third street, east of Verdugo Road, to Mr. Arthur Frazer, who will occupy the same with his family.

F. W. McIntyre sold to Rejino Verdugo a house and lot on Adams street near Third.

Charlotte A. Perrigo sells to W. H. Martin a lot in the Orange Grove tract. The contract for the new Filger Block was signed Friday and work will begin on the building on Monday. A. E. Boyce is the contractor.

POSTPONED.

The W. C. T. U. social that was to have been held Wednesday night was postponed until Monday evening, Feb. 1, at the residence of Mrs. C. O. Pulliam, Second and Kenwood.

AT SACRAMENTO.

Having taken occasion to refer to the measure introduced into the assembly by Assemblyman Drew of Fresno, as "anti-Japanese legislation," we are glad to be assured by that gentleman that this term is incorrect. In a letter to the editor of this paper, Mr. Drew says:

"Now, with reference to the question of 'Anti-Japanese' legislation, I will say that there is nothing in my bill that should be considered as 'anti-Japanese' legislation. It is true that the influx of Japanese into the state of California has caused the introduction of the bill, but it should have been enacted thirty years ago, when Japan placed the same law on her own statute books. We have been exceedingly negligent regarding the rights of future generations, and I am of the opinion that we should protect them by seeing that no alien acquires real property in our state hereafter. This has been the unwritten law of England for so long that the memory of man runneth not to the contrary. You can not anywhere under the British flag acquire territory unless you swear allegiance to the Crown of England. Thousands of our people have recently gone into Manitoba, but not one of them could take the benefit of the land laws of that territory without first taking the oath of allegiance."

A law that applies alike to all aliens, is one to which no valid objections can be made, and recent communications from President Roosevelt to Governor Gillette upon the subject indicate that he would favor such legislation. The governor's last message to the legislature upon the subject is an admirable document and leaves no excuse for the passage of any law aimed exclusively at the Japanese. The president's communications upon the subject also have been most reasonable and logical and leave no excuse for any member of the legislature for accusing him of "interference in a purely state affair," which in the nature of things such legislation cannot be. We are glad to learn that Mr. Drew still maintains his statesmanship poise, uninfluenced by the class of citizens who think with their jaws.

The "woman suffrage" women get a morsel of encouragement out of the fact that the committee on constitutional amendments has decided to report favorably on Grove L. Johnson's bill, which will probably pass the assembly and get up to the senate, even if no further. The bill was defeated in the house on Thursday. Our own Senator Savage has had his libel bill passed back to the senate without recommendation by committee. His conferees do not take the measure seriously. The senator does not like the newspapers and wants to defend, he says, the men who cannot take care of themselves, as he can. He is convinced that the Almighty had nothing to do with the creation of newspapers, anyhow.

When the Otis anti-racetrack gambling bill came up before the assembly on Thursday of last week, it passed without any preliminary debate by a vote of 67 to 10. On a motion to reconsider, however, there was a chance for debate given when it came up at Friday's session and there were three hours of alleged oratory. The Southern Californians did not participate in the debate, but voted all right in a body. Johnson, in opposing the measure, asserted that it is an imperfect bill and not worth the paper it is written on and that he would agree to secure the acquittal of any one accused of violating its provisions. It now goes to the Senate where the real contest will occur.

The assembly has presented to every member of that body, to be paid for out of the contingent fund, a copy of Roberts Rules of Order. It not only costs the people of California an even $1000 now to secure the valuable services of every legislator, but it costs a neat sum to get them to Sacramento so that they can earn it. Senator Leavitt has introduced a bill providing he sum of $23,636.20 for the mileage of senators and the lieutenant governor. To the average member who is supplied with a free ticket, the mileage is just so much money found.

The first junketing committee was named by the assembly when it was decided that the committee on public buildings and grounds visit all the normal schools and other state buildings. This means more mileage.

The bill to give Los Angeles county three more superior court judges, has passed the senate. Senator Savage (our own) has again presented his bill compelling municipalities to pay a minimum daily wage of three dollars for unskilled laborers on all public works. This measure was near becoming a law at the session two years ago, and ridiculous, even vicious, as it is, will no doubt receive considerable support. The present legislature appears, however, to be above the average in intelligence and independence and it is not probable that the measure will get through this time. It would if enacted into law, do more to arrest municipal improvements, particularly in Southern California, than any other mere legislation that we can conceive. It would simply knock the Owens River work "sidly."

Dr. E. H. Thompson left Thursday for Rochester, Minn., where he will undergo an operation. Miss Gertrude Thompson, sister of the doctor, accompanied him and will nurse him during his illness, after which she will go to her home in Wisconsin. The doctor contemplates being absent three weeks.

The new brick block of Geo. H. Wood is now complete and is one of the finest store-blocks in the town. The building consists of three store rooms downstairs and the Masonic hall upstairs. The store rooms are occupied by Geo. H. Wood, Economy Store, Sylvester Goodenow, hardware, and E. M. McClure, Burbank Review.

An enthusiastic election was held here Friday afternoon in the I. O. F. hall for the purpose of electing a road overseer for the Burbank precinct, which resulted in favor of A. S. Robison. Up to the time of the opening of the polls there were three candidates in the field, but at noon just before the election, W. J. Ludlow withdrew. A. S. Robison secured 135 votes and Frank Clarke 70 votes. Mr. Robison will take the position the first of the month.

GLENDAL, CAL., JANUARY 30, 1909

If our patrons, particularly in Tropic and that section within and without the Glendale City limits that has heretofore depended upon the rural free delivery system, will give us their street numbers, we hope that under the new free delivery system the NEWS will reach them more promptly than in the past. Please attend to this promptly.

FREE MAIL DELIVERY FOR GLENDAL AND VICINITY.

The free delivery of mail to Glendale and a portion of Tropic, which will begin Feb. 1st, marks a notable era in our history and will when it gets fairly under way be a distinct advantage we believe to the community. That it may work perfectly in the beginning is not to be expected, but when the rough edges get worn down we have no doubt of the satisfactory character of the service.

A PUBLIC FORUM.

We publish this week a communication from Mr. Gilhousen in defence of Socialism. Without agreeing at all with the views therein expressed, we are glad to afford Mr. Gilhousen space in which to explain the theory which a great many intelligent people thoroughly believe in. We have it on very high authority that we should "Prove all things, hold fast to that which is good," and have no sympathy for the fear entertained by some that we should listen to no argument which may happen to be opposed to our convictions. If our convictions cannot resist argument, they are not worth having. Our columns are open for the fair discussion of any theory which any of our patrons may be honestly interested in.

WHAT THE RAIN WILL DO.

Not for many years has the state been so thoroughly saturated with moisture as it is at present. Losses in some unfortunate localities have been severe from high water, but the general benefit will be immeasurable. Large crops of all the products of our soil may now reasonably be relied upon for the coming season and the cost of production of those crops relying upon irrigation for success will be greatly reduced. Hay, which is now selling higher than at any time in twenty-five years past, may be expected to be produced in quantities sufficient for the home demand, which one item alone means much to Southern California. In our ordinarily dry valley lands large crops of grain are pretty nearly assured and will mean a prosperous season for many farmers who have not recently been getting good crops in such sections. But the indirect benefits will be much greater than these things indicate for the abundant rainfall will increase the spirit of optimism which will prevail in all lines of industry and development and will doubtless result in a year of great results in Southern California.

BUILDING FOR THE FUTURE.

A correspondent calls attention again to the Boulevard question. This matter cannot be agitated too much. Now is the time to get streets, wide streets and plenty of them. It is a problem that gets more difficult with every passing year, as more people become interested and there grows up a wider divergence of personal views and interests. Pasadena is an example of what we believe Glendale is destined to be and our growth is liable to be relatively faster than has been that of our neighbor across the arroyo. But there are some things that we should do better than Pasadena has done, if we profit by her experience. Today Pasadena lacks two or three good broad and long streets through the city, which a few years ago could have been obtained had her people insisted upon having them, but which are today almost impossible of attainment. It is true that we can do without these improvements now; it is also true that we can do without them indefinitely, but will it pay us to do so? The community asks nothing of individual property owners for which they will not receive adequate returns, but it does ask that they take into consideration that we are building for the future and be as liberal as their consciences will permit. And this future is not hidden from us by immeasurable distance, but its proximity is now and then revealed in such a way that we realize that it will soon be merged with the irrevocable past.

MUSIC, LITERATURE AND FINE ART IN THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Charles F. Edson, of Los Angeles, is in Sacramento with a bill which he hopes to get adopted, providing for a state board of art education. He asks an appropriation of $13,000 to pay the expenses of the proposed department and the appointment of a superintendent at a salary of $3600 per year, with an assistant superintendent at a salary of $900 yearly.

The proposition savors of a scheme to provide a nice easy job for our friend Charles. Should such a scheme be enacted into law, the promoter of the enterprise would certainly be entitled to the plum which grows on the tree of his planting. If our legislative representatives should be foolish enough to support this or any other proposition to load down our already over-laden public school system with more dormitories of uselessness, we should be tempted to go over to the ranks of the recallers. It does not indicate a lack of appreciation for art and literature, that we object to putting any more of it into the public schools. There was a time when public schools were "common" schools, where a solid substructure was laid which would bear any superstructure that might be imposed upon it, but the tendency at present is more and more in imitation of the Chinese system of house building, which is said to begin at the top. There are enough schools where art, music and literature are taught to those who wish to become acquainted with their intricacies. Let Charles Farwell Edson come home and not risk any longer the dulling of his fine artistic nature by mixing in Sacramento politics.

There is a good deal of talk nowadays about the "Awakening of the Public Conscience." We hear much about the "Recall" and the "Direct Primary" and other intricate and automatic machinery that is to make good government possible. What hope is there for better government among a people who will not trouble themselves to make use of the means they now possess, but must wait for new laws that better suit their finicky fancy? There is in existence on our statute books a perfect plethora of good laws. The present primary election system can be made to serve the people well at any time they choose to use it. It puts all power into their hands at any such time as they may care to exert themselves intelligently in the using. But because the existing laws do not please every individual citizen, they must be relegated to the waste basket until that impossible time when every individual citizen may have a law ready made to his own personal liking—then, the millennium having arrived unexpectedly by some other route, the world will all go very well! We commend to the world's well wishers, who are waiting for new weapons with which to battle with wrong, the following splendid poem:

"Opportunity"

"This I beheld, or dreamed it in a dream:—
There spread a cloud of dust along a plain;
And underneath the cloud, or in it, raged
A furious battle, and men yelled, and swords
Shocked upon swords and shields. A prince's banner
Wavered, then staggered backward, hemmed by foes.
A craven hung along the battle's edge,
And thought, had I a sword of keener steel—
That blue blade that the king's son bears—but this Blunt thing!—he snapt and flung it from his hand.
And lowering crept along and left the field.
Then came the king's son, wounded, sore beset,
And weaponless, and saw the broken sword
Hilt-buried in the dry and trodden sand,
And ran and snatched it, and with battle-shout
Lifted afresh he hewed his enemy down,
And saved a great cause that heroic day."
—Edward Rowland Sill.

REFORM BY MACHINERY.

Reform by machinery; this is the slogan of our present time. The old-fashioned method of first reforming the individual and leaving the rest to Providence, has been superseded by the more wholesale processes which the swift progress of the age demands. The whole tendency of the times is to let the individual severely alone. If he is weak, he must be propped up by the outward application of some new fangled patented support that the patentee fondly believes will force the unfortunate one into ways of uprightness.

The Socialist seems to believe that there is nothing the matter with the individual; that if he errs the responsibility rests with the outward pressure of an intangible "system," which is in need of reforming. The anarchist tells us in effect that lawbreakers are excusable; they would be eminently good citizens were there no laws to be broken! In the opinion of the Prohibitionist, the Demon Rum is responsible for most of the wrong in the world, and when he is effectually excised by the proper use of the franchise, drunkards will become good citizens and the souls of them be made spotless, not by overcoming, but by the elimination of temptation. The advocates of Woman Suffrage enthusiastically believe that if man would consent to their taking hold of the helm, the Ship of State would avoid the breakers ahead and sail safely into the harbor of Perpetual Peace.

And the church—the church that once relied upon the "foolishness of preaching" and the "Power of the Spirit," is turning more and more to wholesale methods and 20th century mechanism in its work and stands aloof from none of the ambitious schemes for the betterment of the universe. There seems to be but scant hope in the world for the poor, miserable atom of an individual sinner. There is a chance for him if he can only wait until the latest patent for his reformation is in working order. If it does not come in time for his individual case, he can enjoy the reflection that the future at least is secure and that a temptationless world will be and by permit all they that dwell therein to live the blameless life and thank their lucky stars that their earthly pilgrimage was so long delayed!

BROAD BOULEVARDS.

Editor THE NEWS:—
Since a parked boulevard one hundred and fifty or two hundred feet wide was suggested by Los Angeles City Forester Harper, a few weeks ago, before a Glendale audience, a gratifying interest has been expressed from various quarters on the subject. Mr. Harper designated Central avenue as a suitable street to be so broadened and parked and already two property holders have offered to give the necessary land to make a broad boulevard of it. Central avenue is admirably adapted to it, especially as no paving has been done on it, but as it is rather far west in the city something more central might give better satisfaction to all. However, one citizen, who has noted the desirability of broad boulevards in Europe, suggests four such for Glendale and without special thought enumerated, in conversation, Central avenue and Verdugo Road running north and south and First and Sixth streets, running east and west. These streets not yet paved can all be converted into spacious boulevards, the pride of Glendale, if property holders adjoining them realize the great advantage of this action and contribute the strip of land necessary to broaden the street. Whether Glendale shall have one or more broad parked boulevard lies entirely with adjoining property holders who may or may not appreciate both the aesthetic and financial advantages as resulting, since that splendid broad thoroughfare from Riverside to the ocean, is an assured thing and its course will be through Pasadena, Eagle Rock, and on Sixth street through Glendale, it is greatly to be desired that property holders, along that street which will thus be brought into prominence by the immense amount of travel which will thus be fostered, shall give liberal rewards, making it a thoroughfare which shall adequately represent the best sentiment of Glendale and at once increase the value of the property situated on a handsome boulevard of such unusual prominence.

Hotel Grafters.

The proprietor of one of the largest hotels in New York, speaking of the uses made by nonpaying customers of his house, said to a rural guest a few days ago: "We have a large number of patrons from whom we never collect a cent, although we have no such thing as a free list. They come here in the morning, pick up a castoff paper, which they read, keeping an eye open for another, which they grab as soon as it is dropped. After reading while they stand at the ticker, often giving long lectures to their fellows on financial conditions and stock possibilities. The overcoat becomes burdensome, and it is taken to the check room, where its owner knows it will be perfectly safe. Then, if they can tear themselves from the ticker, letters are written on our stationery. They do not use our telephones because we charge an extra 5 cents for the call, but they carry home matches, toothpicks, blank cards and blotters and use up the soap in our lavatories. They also take generous nibbles of the cheese and crackers in the cafe. The strangest part of all is this—that the majority of this class are well to do and highly respectable, and on that account we do not shut them out."—New York Tribune.

The Sleeping Sickness.

The terrible sleeping sickness of tropical Africa is discussed at length in an article in Popular Mechanics. The disease, which long baffled scientists, is spread by the tsetse fly, a bloodsucking, day flying insect. On the approach of either man or animal at a river crossing in the densest forest the victim is soon scented out by the fly, if there is one in the vicinity, and then, either silently or with a peevish buzz, it makes straight for the most accessible spot and gives its stab. The usual course of the disease is from four to eight months. At the outset there are headache, a feverish condition, lassitude and a corresponding disinclination to work. The facial aspect changes, and a previously happy and intelligent looking negro becomes instead dull, heavy and apathetic. Later, tremor in the tongue develops, speech is uncertain, and mumbling, weak shuffling and progressive weakness, drowsiness and oblivion to his surroundings afflict the sufferer. The last stage is marked by extreme emaciation and a coma deepening into death.

Cause of Fatty Heart.

The great danger from obesity lies in the liability of the fat to invade the cellular elements of the body, especially the muscles. This produces fatty degeneration of the muscular tissues, which greatly weakens and impairs their functional activity. When the fat invades the tissues of the heart muscle the disease known as "fatty degeneration of the heart" results, and the patient is in serious danger. Whenever a slight additional strain upon the circulation results from undue exercise, excitement or other cause the muscles interfere with the heart's action, and it is liable to cease beating. Anæmia and hysteria often are accompaniments of obesity. Because of the increased weight and difficulty of moving about such patients are prevented from taking an ordinary amount of exercise. Often, too, there are a lassitude and a positive dislike for muscular exertion of any kind.—What to Eat.

From Medicine to the Drama.

The earlier part of Victorien Sardou's career was beset with many trials and difficulties. His parents wished him to take up a medical career, and he began his studies with some zeal. The love of the drama, however, was far greater than the love of the pill box, and in the interval of the other work Sardou was busy upon a play. Life was a struggle for him, for he had little money, though he managed to get journalistic work to supplement his more slender income. His first play was a failure, and Sardou rushed from the theater vowing never to enter one again. He fell seriously ill, was nursed back to health by Mlle. de Brecourt, an actress who lived on a floor below, and from that time his fortune was made.

A Friend in Need.

About half an hour had been expended by the bashful young man in a series of advances and retreats, and little Johnny's cramped position behind the sofa was becoming somewhat painful.

"I wish I dared!" the young man commenced on a new attack, when the couple were electrified by an impatient exclamation behind them: "Aw, make a break! She's dead easy!"—Brooklyn Life.

Literary Irrigation.

"Your latest novel seems very dry," said the reader of the publishing house to the young but rising author.

"I was pretty sure you would say that," rejoined the author. "Consequently if you will count them you will find the heroine weeps real tears on just 253 pages of my story."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

SOCIALISM—AN OPEN LETTER.

Rev. J. F. Humphrey.
Dear Sir: I listened recently to your answer to objections or excesses given for non-attendance at church.

In the course of your remarks you took occasion to rather slur or speak slightly of the Socialists and socialism. You tried to make it appear that the Socialists were wrong in seeking to better social and economic conditions, and a radical change in government, that the Bible way and the only way was to commence with the individual. So be it.

Let us begin with the individual. Suppose you take an individual and seek to make a Christian that will measure up to the demands of the Master. You would teach him first to pray the Lord's Prayer; our Father—and if God be our common Father, then we are all brethren. So you would commence making a Christian as the Socialists do, by teaching the brotherhood of man. You would further teach him, as Paul taught, to render society an honest equivalent for what he received from society, and he that will not work, neither shall he eat. You would teach him from the 18th chapter of Ezekiel and many other passages in the Old and New Testaments, the heinous sin of taking, usury, interest, or increase. You would teach him from the many parables and words of Christ, how hard it is for the rich to enter the kingdom of heaven. You would teach him the injustice of withholding the wages of the poor, by which means the rich grow richer and the poor grow poorer. In short, you would teach him to live righteously, deal justly and love mercy.

Now, I ask you in the name of all that is reasonable and in the name of a just God, can a man measure up to that standard of Christianity and still be an upholder of the unchristian, unmerciful, unjust, cruel, robbing capitalist system? You would hardly contend that a man could be a Christian and not be honest, but can he be honest and stand for a dishonest system, or can he be a saint and a sinner, serving God and Mammon at the same time.

The ethics of socialism are identical with the ethics of Christianity. So your genuine Christian would be a Socialist and just the kind of a Socialist that the Socialists need. But it appears that the churches are not making that kind of Christians very fast; and right here comes in the reason why so many of the wage earning class refuse to be interested or take part in this mock Christianity.

The world is crying out for brotherhood and you do not teach it. The world is crying out for justice and you do not preach it. Inaugurate the reign of social and economic justice which Christ taught, but which the Church refuses to teach and you would give the Christ spirit in man a chance to develop.

We believe that the substituting of justice for injustice would in a time empty every jail and penitentiary in the land. You will not, you cannot, deny that the Socialistic principles stand for justice, for all and the highest interests of humanity. Then as a professed Christian we cannot understand why you oppose us, or why you are not with us, or how you can stand in the pulpit and pray for the coming of Christ's kingdom and then stand in the door with your ballot and drive it back. You exhort us to follow the teachings of Christ and then when we seek to make a practical application of those principles to the affairs of man here and now, you coolly tell us we are on the wrong track. Thus has it been for nineteen hundred years and we are still in savagery; still practicing the ethics of the jungle. Our so-called Christian civilization is nothing but a thin veneer and cannot be anything else so long as we live under the rule of capitalization. It is not true Christianity that the people are indifferent to it. It is the make-belief shams and priestcraft that disgusts. If Christ should come now and preach as he did nineteen hundred years ago, the poor would again hear him gladly. When you minister preach the practical application of the golden rule and the Sermon on the Mount, your message will be heard and received with great joy.

The greatest anti-Christ in the world today is capitalism and the great indictment that can be brought against the Christian church is that it has no protest, but is at peace with the capitalistic system, as Spargo says, "A religion that does not express itself in fraternal and social relations is not a religion at all, but a mocking masquerade. A church which does not stand out against a social economy which compels the many to toil wearily and live sadly in order that the few may live vain and empty lives is not a religious institution. Such a church is irrelevant in the true meaning of those terms. The Christian who does not feel the poverty of our cities to be a reproach to society; the hunger of mothers and babes to be a sinful and shameful thing; the toil of little children to the end that palaces may be built for human drones, to be as unholly as the crucifixion of Jesus itself, is far more in need of the services of some true Christian missionary than any poor heathen in Africa or elsewhere. To be a good Christian and a bad citizen at the same time is impossible. To be a good citizen without seeking to remove bad social conditions is impossible."

To free the wage worker from economical exploitation is indeed the primary object, the immediate aim of socialism, but it is not the sole object, it is not the end but the means to an end that is far higher—the liberation of the soul. Labor like another Prometheus is bound to the rack of private profit and greed, and socialism comes as the mighty Hercules to cut the cords and break the chains that bind the soul of man, setting it free for its upward and Godward flight. Yours in humanity's cause,
R. GILHOUSEN.

SCIENCE.

The Coming Comet. II. (Written for The News.)

But few objects appeal more to the imagination of the thoughtful student of nature than the appearance of a great comet, and when to this is joined the knowledge that the advent of this mysterious object has been accurately predicted for more than a hundred years, and that it is seventy-five years since it was last seen, the combination is truly fascinating. Such, however, is the interesting situation now being arranged for us by the gigantic forces of nature.

The comet for which astronomers all over the world are now on the lookout is known as Halley's Comet, so named from the fact that it was first discovered in 1682 by Edmund Halley, the pupil and friend of Sir Isaac Newton. He calculated the elements of its orbit, on Newton's principles, and found them to resemble so closely those similarly obtained from comets observed in 1531 by Peter Apian, and in 1607 by Kepler, as to suggest the probability that all three were the successive visits of the same body. This indicated a period of about seventy-five years, and Halley predicted its return for 1758-9. As a popular writer observes, "The prediction was one of the test questions put by science to nature, on the replies to which largely depend both the development of knowledge and the conviction of its reality." In the present instance, the answer afforded may be said to have laid the foundation of this branch of astronomy. Halley's comet punctually reappeared on Christmas day, 1758, thus proving beyond dispute that some, at least, of these erratic bodies are domesticated within our system, and strictly conform to its fundamental laws. Their movements, in short, were demonstrated by the most unanswerable of all arguments, that of verified calculation—to be calculable, and their investigation was erected into a legitimate department of astronomical science. Calculating backwards from 1531, it was found that the comet had appeared in 1456, when it created such consternation throughout Europe that Pope Calixtus ordered prayers to be offered for protection against the "Turks and the comet." In the same manner the comet has been identified with observed appearances at various intervals of time as far back as the year 12 B. C.

Having reappeared on schedule time in 1758, astronomers felt quite safe in predicting its return in 1835, and by that time many improvements, both in instruments and methods of observation and computation had been made, which enabled mathematicians to achieve more accurate results. The computation of the return of the comet was undertaken independently by four leading astronomers, and the nearest prediction was made by De Pontecoulant, the French astronomer, who assigned November 13th as the date of perihelion, or nearest approach to the sun, while the comet actually made its perihelion passage on November 16th—three days later. It was first detected by the telescope at Rome on August 5th, not becoming visible to unaided vision, however, till about the middle of September. As it approached the sun it rapidly increased in size and brilliancy, developing, at the same time, a most prodigious tail, some forty degrees in length, stretching across the heavens like a fiery sword. By the end of October it had got too near the sun for observation, but reappeared in January, 1836, and continued visible in the southern heavens, becoming smaller and fainter until May 17, when it disappeared from the closest scrutiny of the most powerful telescope of the time, and has not been seen since. We know, however, that its orbit extends Beyond the Planet Neptune some five hundred million miles, and that it reached its farthest limit about the year 1873. Since that date it has been rushing back on its return journey. When it next blazes forth in our skies, since its last visitation, it will have traveled out into space the amazing distance of three thousand three hundred millions of miles and back. Its velocity varies constantly with its distance from the sun. When on its outward journey the pull of the sun continually retards its motion until it reaches its aphelion or farthest distance, when it moves with a speed of only about thirty miles a minute. The turning point being reached, it immediately begins to accelerate its speed, and approaches the sun with ever-increasing velocity, rushing round the controlling body at the terrific rate of nineteen hundred miles a minute. It is probably this tremendous motion which prevents it falling into the sun. It is only as they approach the sun that comets develop any striking appearance, and when they leave his fierce glare and heat, they return to quite insignificant objects, appearing when first detected as misty patches of light which indeed is their normal state for most of their existence.

Halley's comet is still outside of the orbit of Jupiter many millions of miles, a mere nebulous spot, though of gigantic proportions, it is rushing towards us in that part of the sky where the constellations of Taurus, Orion and Gemini meet. In March it will pass inside the path of the giant planet, and for a whole year will be traversing the wide space, about three hundred and forty million miles, between the orbits of Jove and Mars.

There is some reason to believe that comets suffer constant diminution by a process of dissipation of material, and it is possible we may be somewhat disappointed at the reappearance of the comet, which may possibly disclose considerable shrinkage. From ancient accounts of its earlier appearances it would seem to have been a much more striking figure in those days. On the other hand, however, we cannot tell how much such accounts were inflated by the popular imagination of the time. If they were in any degree similar to the pictorial representations of the comet, even at its last visit, they were doubtless exaggerated.

A most interesting feature of the present effort to catch the first trace of the comet is the application of the art of photography. Many months before it becomes visible in our best telescopes the

is expected to catch it on the sensitive plate. And among the watchers of the hundreds of photographic traps set to catch the pale presence of this comet hastening into our ken from the dim Beyond, it may be well imagined that much friendly rivalry exists, as to who shall be the fortunate first discoverer. Historic propriety would perhaps rejoice if it fell to Old Greenwich observatory, where Halley himself presided when first he introduced the comet to the world. But Professor Barnard has accomplished some very delicate work with the forty-inch telescope of the Yerkes observatory. He is said to be a magician with the highly sensitive plate that records faint objects in the heavens. There are also many others, and surely Old Greenwich will have to look to its laurels.

NOTICE OF TRUSTEE'S SALE.

Whereas in a certain Deed of Trust, dated August 11, 1905, executed at Los Angeles, California, by Robert N. Martin and Pearl C. Martin, his wife, parties of the first part, the Title Guarantee and Trust Company, a corporation, party of the second part, and Fidelity Savings and Loan Association, a corporation, party of the third part, and recorded August 15, 1905, in book 2406, page 180, of Trust Deeds, Records of Los Angeles County, California, to which record reference is hereby made; said parties of the first part, Robert N. Martin and Pearl C. Martin, did grant and convey the premises therein described to the Title Guarantee and Trust Company as trustee, for the uses and purposes set out in said Trust Deed, among other uses, to secure the payment of one certain promissory note and interest according to the terms of said note, and other sums of money advanced, and interest thereon, the same being made due and payable to Fidelity Savings and Loan Association, a corporation, the party of the third part.

Whereas, there has been a default in the payment of the monthly installment of interest and premium due and payable on said note for the month of September, 1908, and all subsequent monthly installments, and of the amount due as the expense fund in accordance with the provision of the By-Laws of said Fidelity Savings and Loan Association, and by reason of such default said Fidelity Savings and Loan Association, in accordance with the provisions of its By-Laws and said Trust Deed, has declared the full amount of the indebtedness immediately due and payable, there being the total sum of eleven hundred fifty-one and 10/100 dollars ($1151.10) now due and unpaid.

Whereas, it is provided in said Trust Deed that if there is a default in the payment of any of the principal, interest, or money advanced for any purpose, mentioned as secured by said deed; that upon application of the party of the third part, or its successors or assigns, the party of the second part shall give notice and sell the premises, or as much thereof, as shall be necessary to pay the liabilities unpaid secured by the Trust Deed.

Whereas, said Fidelity Savings and Loan Association, a corporation, the holder of the note secured in said Trust Deed, by reason of the default in payments, as stated, has applied to and requested the Title Guarantee and Trust Company, party of the second part, to proceed and sell the granted premises, or as much thereof, as shall be necessary to pay the whole of the principal, premium, interest, amount due as premium on stock, amount due as expense fund and interest thereon, attorney fees, all costs, charges and expenses incurred necessary to the execution of said trust, and

Whereas, said Title Guarantee and Trust Company has demanded, payment of said Robert N. Martin and Pearl C. Martin, his wife, the sum of eleven hundred fifty-one and 10/100 dollars ($1151.10) which sum remains due and unpaid.

Now therefore, notice is hereby given that the Title Guarantee and Trust Company, by virtue of the authority vested in said Corporation as Trustee, will sell at public auction, to the highest bidder, for cash in gold coin on the 27th day of February, 1909, at the hour of 12 M., of said day, at the Western front entrance of the Court House in the City of Los Angeles, California, all the interest conveyed by said parties of the first part, to the party of the second part by said Trust Deed in and to all the following described property, to wit: The Easterly portion of Lot Five (5) in Block Sixteen (16) of Highland View Tract, in the City of and County of Los Angeles, State of California, as per map recorded in Book 9, pages 25 et seq., Miscellaneous Records of said County, and further described as follows: Beginning at the North-easterly corner of said Lot Five (5), running thence southerly along the line of Cedar Street 74.57 feet; thence westerly along the most southerly line of said lot 136.50 feet; thence northerly 65 feet; thence easterly 114.91 feet to point of beginning, or so much thereof as shall be necessary to pay the total amount of the principal, interest, advances, charges, and costs accrued, amounting to the sum of thirteen hundred dollars ($1300), due and unpaid.

In witness whereof the Title Guarantee and Trust Company has duly authorized this notice, by the signature of its Vice-President, attested by the Secretary, who has affixed the Corporate Seal, at Los Angeles, California, this 20th day of January, 1909.

A Phonetic Purchase.

The late Henry Miller, who was guide, philosopher and friend to many book lovers within a thousand miles of New York, was a most successful salesman. One day he called on Collie P. Huntington and showed him a rare copy of a book.

"There are two volumes of this," said Mr. Miller. "The other volume is in perfect order, as you see this one is. You cannot possibly let them escape you, for you know you have nothing like this in your library."

"What is the price?" asked the railroad king.

"Seven hundred dollars," said the bookman.

"Those are too valuable volumes for my library," Mr. Huntington exclaimed.

Mr. Miller went back to his place and sent the books to Mr. Huntington's house with a bill for $700. Next day the railroad king sent for him.

"Why did you send me those books?" he demanded sharply.

"Because you bought them," was the bookman's calm reply.

"I certainly did not!" cried the millionaire.

"Oh, yes, you did!" answered Mr. Miller. "You'll remember perfectly well when I tell you what you said. You told me distinctly, 'Those are two valuable volumes for my library.'"—Harper's Weekly.

Books of Reference.
Newspaper editors like to answer questions addressed to them by their readers—if they are not too hard—and they deem themselves as arbiters rather than as accessories to a misdeed when they are appealed to for information "to decide a bet." But they wonder sometimes why certain questions are put to them for arbitration when the answers are to be found in one of three very accessible books—an almanac, a grammar and a small dictionary.

These are books of reference that ought to be in every home library, however small. We guess that they are, but that they are sometimes dusty with misuse or out of easy reach on a top shelf. It is well to have an almanac, a dictionary or an atlas handy when you are reading your newspaper. By consulting them frequently the reader will find his daily paper relates his early historical studies to present events and makes his touch with the world closer and more significant. Get the habit!—New York Mail.

A Sporting Parson.
The inhibition of a hunting rector by his bishop reminds a correspondent that the Rev. Jack Russell, the famous west country sporting parson, was once cited to appear before the bishop of Exeter to answer charges of neglecting his spiritual and parochial duties, and he was also remonstrated with for keeping and following a pack of hounds. The charges were proved unfounded, and Russell refused to give up the sport, which he continued to pursue almost to the day of his death in 1895, at the age of eighty-eight. Besides being an invincible hunter, he was, as his biographer pitifully remarks, "a staunch supporter of Devonshire wrestlers, an admirable sparrer and an enthusiastic upholder of the virtues of Devonshire cider and cream." And in the pulpit he tried to reform conduct rather than to expound doctrine and was a stern denouncer of bad language, strong drink and "the filthy habit of smoking."—St. James' Gazette.

Sarcasm in the Commons.
The reluctance of the house of commons to adjourn over Derby day recalls a story related of one of the Roman Catholic peers who took their seats some four or five years before the passage of the first reform bill after an exclusion of a century and a half. He gave notice that on a certain day he would make a certain motion, whereupon there arose from his noble colleagues a general cry of "Derby!" The astonished novice named another day, only to be greeted with an equally unalloyed expostulation of "Oaks!" At this he explained that he would have to ask the forgiveness of their lordships; but, having been educated abroad, he was forced to acknowledge that he was not familiar with the list of saints' days in the Anglican calendar.

His Glasses.
He came home in the small hours of the morning, and his loving spouse confronted him with wrath in her eye and a telegram in her hand, saying, "Here is news that has been waiting for you since supper time."

He blinked, looked wise and, braced up against the hatrack, felt through his pockets, murmuring, "I left my glasses down town."

"Yes," she replied, with scathing irony, "but you brought the contents with you."

Not Grasping.
"What a grasping fellow you are, Hawkins! You've bothered me about this bill fifty times in ten days."

"You wrong me, Jarley. I'm not grasping. I've bothered you about the bill, I admit, but I haven't been able to grasp anything yet."

Found Him Guilty.
Counsel (to the jury)—The principal fault of the prisoner has been his unfortunate characteristic of putting faith in thieves and scoundrels of the basest description. I have done. The unhappy man in the dock puts implicit faith in you, gentlemen of the jury!

She Had to Mend Them.
Benham—I believe in putting my best foot forward. Mrs. Benham—I have noticed that your toe always goes right through your stocking.—New York Press.

Cause of Car Sickness.

W. C. Wood attributes car sickness to the nystagmus produced by looking out of the car windows. Look out of a car window and observe how rapidly the telegraph poles flit by. Each one is seen and involuntarily followed by the eye until it is opposite, when the eye shifts to the one following. This is true of near buildings. Objects farther away seem to move slower, and those very far off seem to be almost stationary until the whole landscape appears to be revolving round a common center. The unconscious effort to take in everything produces a rapid lateral oscillation of the eyeballs, as any one can observe by watching the eyes of his fellow passengers. The eye strain is enormous and is the chief factor in producing car sickness. This can be proved by asking a patient who is subject to car sickness to look steadily at a mirror which is moved rapidly to and fro or tilted backward and forward. He will immediately complain of nausea and vertigo. The treatment consists of advising the patient to avoid looking out of the car windows and in giving him a grain of citrated codeine shortly before he takes the cars and repeating it every hour as long as there is any tendency to be sick. The author has been enabled by this procedure to relieve many sufferers from car sickness.—New York Medical Journal.

TROPICO

Watch for Tropic Tag Day.

Owing to the inclemency of the weather N. P. Banks W. R. C. held no meeting Friday afternoon.

Charles Shuck of Los Angeles visited Mr. and Mrs. R. Zinn Imler of Riverdale Drive, the first of the week.

Miss Ida Meyers of Los Angeles was the weekend guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Meyers, at "Beth Eden."

Tropico plays Buaneman, Sunday, January 31, ground San Fernando Road, near Tropico Post Office. Good game, come!

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Allen of Colorado City, Colo., were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. David H. Imler at "Palm Villa," the latter part of the week.

Miss Freda Borthick, one of the most popular teachers in the Tropico schools, has returned from a few days' visit to Miss Lulu Hughes at Norwalk.

Considerable interest is being manifested in the Union Bible class at G. A. R. hall every Tuesday evening. Poston Smale will be present at every meeting. Everybody invited.

FOR RENT—Five-room house, including bath. Outbuildings for chicken raising. $12 per month. Palmer avenue between Central avenue and Brand Boulevard. Address, Box 19, Tropico, Cal.

The Tropico-Boys' Athletic Club met at Burt Richardson's residence Friday evening. This is a club of enterprising and promising youth of Tropico. Charles Shick is president; Harry Hayward, vice president; George Mecke, secretary; Lawrence Dutton, treasurer. Eugene Imler was admitted as the latest member. George Mecke entertains the club at the next meeting.

Hon. S. A. Kendall, who after a few days' visit to his family, after returning from his lumbering interests in Roseburg, Oregon, returned Monday to his home at Meyersville, Penn. Hon. and Mrs. Kendall contemplate residing in the Valley. During Mr. Kendall's absence Mrs. Kendall and children met in the G. A. R. hall and after the business of the evening a profitable social time was enjoyed. Although the attendance was not as large as was hoped for, it was a great deal better than on previous evenings. Last night this lodge met in this same hall for their regular meeting and a good program was rendered and refreshments served. At the last meeting a committee was appointed for the purpose of making arrangements for a social which will be held in the near future. For some time it was feared that the Tropico chapter would lose its charter, but owing to the efforts of Mrs. L. C. Rice, Robert Taylor and several others, the charter has been saved and after much work the members are being drawn together.

Tropico Tag Day is on February 15.

Mrs. Martha McClure, principal of the Tropico Grammar school announces that everything is traveling along in the very best manner possible at the school. Although the absence of the twelve pupils, which were taken from the school by the Washington Park district, is felt to some extent, the principal is expecting that before long the completion of the present term the total enrollment will be larger than it has ever been.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian church of Tropico held an interesting meeting at the residence of Mrs. A. W. Collins, Wednesday afternoon. Topics relative to the missionary course at home and abroad were freely discussed in a most instructive manner. Mrs. W. H. Halleck gave a concise and interesting report of the meeting of the missionary society, held at the residence of Mrs. Frank Albright in Glendale and of the recent missionary convention held in Pasadena.

Get in the swim, Tag Day at Tropico.

Tropico society folks were well represented at the installation ceremonies of Glen Eyrie Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, which occurred Thursday night at Masonic hall, Glendale. Mrs. Adelaide H. Imler of "Palm Villa" was installed as Worthy Matron, Dr. A. L. Bryant Worthy Patron, Mrs. Margaret Campbell of "Ard Evvin," Associate Matron, Mrs. Elizabeth Moyle retired as Worthy Matron and David H. Imler as Worthy Patron, Miss Cora Hickman, Past District Deputy Grand Matron, presided as installing officer. Dainty little Marjory Imler assisted as flower girl.

Come! See the fun—Tag Day.

The committee of ladies of the Tropico Ladies' Tuesday Afternoon club, under whose auspices the series of dances, which were completed last Friday evening, were given, have decided to give another series. The first series was so profitable that they decided to go forward with more. The dates on which the events will fall are February 12, March 12 and April 9. The Smabe orchestra will furnish music at all these events. The ladies on the committee are Mesdames J. H. Seaman, E. J. Morgan, J. H. Webster, Charles A. Barker, Burt Richardson and Edward M. Lynch.

TROPICO POSTOFFICE.

According to a report given recently by the postmistress of the Tropico postoffice, the gross receipts of the office for the year ending January 1st was $1502.26. This shows a good increase over that of the year 1907, and the present year promises to go far ahead of the receipts of 1908. During the year the office has been greatly enlarged, being made twice its former size. Also, a whole section of new lock boxes have been installed. Tropico has one of the best mail services of any town its size in Southern California—five mails arriving and five departing every day by direct route, on the Southern Pacific. This gives the best possible service in the mails going both north and south. There is no delay.

TROPICO TAG DAY.

Although Tropico is going to have a Tag Day soon, it does not want the people of the valley to think that it is in any way copying after a similar event held some time ago in our suburb—the City of the Angels. Tag Day will be held by the members of the Thursday Afternoon Club of this place on Saturday, February 15th, and the proceeds of the day will be put in the fund to be used to buy new books for the Tropico Library. At the present time there are a few more than 700 books in the library and the ladies are hoping that the proceeds from this first Tropico Tag Day, will be large enough to swell the number of books in the library to an even thousand. The selling of the tags will be done by the children of the place and by the members of the Thursday Afternoon club. The tags to be sold will be regular shipping tags on which will be printed, "Tropico Tag Day, Ten Cents."

INTEREST IN I. O. G. T. GROWING.

During the past several months the interest in the Good Templar's lodge has been waning, but the officials inform us that at the present time there seems to be somewhat of a revival in the interest, and that the outlook is brighter than it has been for a long time. A week last Friday evening this order met in the G. A. R. hall and after the business of the evening a profitable social time was enjoyed. Although the attendance was not as large as was hoped for, it was a great deal better than on previous evenings. Last night this lodge met in this same hall for their regular meeting and a good program was rendered and refreshments served. At the last meeting a committee was appointed for the purpose of making arrangements for a social which will be held in the near future. For some time it was feared that the Tropico chapter would lose its charter, but owing to the efforts of Mrs. L. C. Rice, Robert Taylor and several others, the charter has been saved and after much work the members are being drawn together.

TROPICO METHODIST CHURCH ITEMS.

Revival services, which were held at this church, closed last Sunday evening. The attendance throughout the series was excellent, especially during the latter part, when the weather was so stormy. The pastor reports that the church was greatly revived as a result of this series, also that a number of people were converted. Several of those who were converted have already united with the church on probation.

Last Wednesday evening, a Covenant prayer meeting was held in the church. The attendance was very good and the pastor presented the matter of organizing a Covenant league in the church. A number of signers were secured as a nucleus, with the prospect of quite a number of others in the near future.

The Sunday school of this church is in fine condition at the present time, with an increasing attendance and a deep interest being manifest in its success. The new superintendent, Mr. George Link, is becoming quite popular with the young people and is doing a good work.

ELECTION OF ROAD FOREMAN IN TROPICO.

The election which was held last Saturday afternoon at Tropico for the election of a road foreman for that road district in accordance with the new departure inaugurated by Supervisor Pridham, passed off quietly and resulted in a large vote being cast. The election while unofficial has just the same result in effect as if held in accordance with the provisions of the code, as Mr. Pridham, upon whom devises the responsibility of making the appointment to that position, has agreed to abide by the decision of the people of the district. That Mr. Pridham has decided not to be dependent upon any personal political machine is evidenced by the fact that no one of the aspirants for the position of foreman, was an original Pridham supporter, all of them favoring other candidates previous to the nominating convention. There were 385 votes cast, divided as follows: W. R. Light, 203; J. B. Cathcart, 131; J. W. Parker, 31. Mr. Light being a well known and old resident of Tropico, proved to have a large support which left the other candidates well in the rear. He received a large vote from the Ivanhoe section. As he has had several years experience working on the roads of the district, there is but little doubt that he will fill the position satisfactorily.

TROPICO GRAMMAR SCHOOL NOTES.

Last Monday was a day which will long be remembered by the pupils and faculty of the Tropico Grammar school. On that day twenty beautiful steel-engraved pictures were hung in the various rooms throughout the building, these pictures being portraits of different popular authors and a number being reproductions of the work of world-renowned artists. The pictures were hung by Mr. Allen Harvey, a representative of the Kunst Art Gallery of Los Angeles, who gave a brief account of each picture as it was being hung. Besides the pupils and teachers there were present at this event, Mrs. Edward M. Lynch, Mrs. Charles Murray, Mrs. A. W. Collins, Mrs. W. C. Waitles, Mrs. Ernest J. Morgan and Mrs. W. H. Webster, all members of the Thursday Afternoon club of this place. These pictures were purchased with the money which the school cleared at the concert given in the G. A. R. hall, last November, when $55.50 was raised. Ever since the concert the pupils and faculty alike have been looking forward to this event, anticipating a good time, and they were not disappointed.

The teachers of the school are preparing exercises to commemorate the one hundredth birthday of Abraham Lincoln, which occurs on the 12th of February. Programs will be given in the several rooms, Friday afternoon, and the teachers of each room will prepare her separate program. The parents and friends of the children are requested to hold this date open so that they will be able to attend the exercises.

A. W. Collins, president of the board of directors of the school, visited throughout the various rooms, Monday.

Miss Clorice Merrill, a teacher at this school, has almost recovered from a severe attack of poison oak, which she received while climbing with a party of friends up Mt. Lowe, several days ago. Although she suffered considerably, she pluckily attended to her duties in the school as usual.

Miss May Cornwell, teacher of the Seventh grade, walked to Burbank last Sunday afternoon, just by way of exercise and also to call on a friend here. While returning, a severe storm arose and when Miss Cornwell arrived home her clothes were soaked through. May claims she had to swim part of the way and wade the other part.

TROPICO IMPROVEMENT ASSOCIATION.

The regular meeting of the Tropico Improvement Association was held in Logan's hall, Wednesday evening, with an attendance of about thirty-five public-spirited citizens.

F. C. Richardson in behalf of the committee on street lights, reported that it would be impossible at this time to secure regular street lights as the people of this place did not seem inclined to donate any money for that purpose. He suggested, however, that it might be well for those who desired lights to install a small light of some kind in front of their own property. This, he thought, would encourage others to do the same and might possibly lead to the securing of regular street lights in a not distant future.

The matter of the placing of street signs at the intersections of all streets was taken up. C. C. Chandler stated that six years ago signs were placed at the intersections of almost all of the streets, but that they had been neglected and some of them had fallen down and were broken. A number were still standing, however, and all they needed was repainting to make them serviceable. It was decided that the secretary of the association be requested to communicate with Supervisor Pridham, asking if it would not be possible for the county to plant sign posts at all intersections of streets.

Hal Davenport reported that the electric car which leaves North Glendale at 8:20 every morning was always so crowded that quite a number of the passengers were obliged to stand while the car went all the way to Los Angeles. He wanted to know whether or not it would be possible for the association to look into the matter, and, if possible, secure from the railroad company better service on this particular run. The secretary was requested to communicate with the Pacific Electric company, asking that company to put on a two-car train at 8:20 a. m.

President Watson reported that Supervisor Pridham had written to him asking him to secure the opinion of the association as to the appointing of an advisory board to work in conjunction with Road Overseer W. R. Light, the work of this board being to assist in any way the road overseer of this district. Mr. Light was present and said that he was very glad that Mr. Pridham had suggested the appointing of a board of this kind, and that he would do everything in his power to work in harmony with this board, if appointed. After several other members had given short talks the following men were chosen to constitute the advisory board of this district: Edward M. Lynch, W. C. Waitles, E. W. Richardson, Fred Pittman and Charles Madsen, with Mr. Richardson as chairman. In selecting this committee, the president endeavored to have every part of the district represented.

The main business of the evening was the matter of having free mail delivery for Tropico. The members present were divided as to the advisability of welcoming this proposition, and consequently a lively discussion arose, in which most of those present took part. The following letter from the postal authorities at Los Angeles was read by Mr. Richardson:

A. M. Watson, president of Improvement Association, Tropico, Cal.

Dear Sir: Insofar as the changes in the postal service contemplated February 1st next, is concerned, permit me to advise that the principal feature of the change is the extension of metropolitan city delivery in the compact and well-built-up portions of Tropico. There is no intention nor will there be any intention, not to continue a postoffice or branch at Tropico, and if the Tropico postoffice is a branch of the Los Angeles postoffice, the mails will be exchanged exactly as they are now, and probably more frequently.

The direct exchange of mails between the Tropico postoffice and the Southern Pacific railway trains will be continued even if the branch is established.

Insofar as the general patrons of Tropico are concerned they will know absolutely no change in the postal service, except that they will have the advantages of a city in metropolitan city delivery and free delivery of mail to their homes.

Very respectfully,
M. H. PLINT, Postmaster.

The association adopted the following resolution:

Resolved That the Tropico Improvement Association express itself to the postoffice authorities to the effect that if the Tropico postoffice remain as the distributing point for this community, that we give our hearty endorsement of the proposed free delivery.

The committee on the opening of Brand Boulevard between Cypress and Tropico avenues, reported that the committee had been working earnestly since the last evening, and that already $950 had been subscribed to help pay for this opening. The list of subscribers is as follows: L. C. Brand, $500; A. G. Stepper, $100; Hal Davenport, $100; Mrs. A. L. Bancroft, $75; A. W. Collins, $75; M. Stubblefield, $75.
